Dear Parent/Carer

We are happy to be returning back to school to enjoy what promises to be an exciting half term for all. There are many dates for your diaries and a flyer for your fridge will be circulated on Friday so you can keep up with school events

Unfortunately, we start the half term without Mr Macfarlane, he sadly is unwell due to Covid. We are hearing about cases rising in the borough, so encourage the school community to distance where possible and to wear masks, at your discretion, to keep the school community safe. We wish Mr Macfarlane a speedy recovery.

We still wish to encourage your attendance at school events, it's been lovely having the school vibrant and fully open again. Big Read will change locations so we can distance safely but remain cohesive as a school.

Big Read

Tomorrow's Big Read will take place as follows:

Reception and Year 1 will be in the new Reception classroom.

Years 3 and 4 will be in the hall.

Years 2, 5 and 6 will be in the playground.

BBC Black and British documentary screenings (1 hour long) will be shown in the brand new Reception Classroom on the following dates:

Episode 1. 'First Encounters' – Wednesday November 3rd @6pm

Episode 2. 'Freedom' – Wednesday November 10th @6pm

Episode 3. 'Moral Mission' – Wednesday November 17th @6pm

Episode 4. 'The Homecoming' – Wednesday 24th @6pm
